

Zurab Koberidze, M.D., Ph.D., MPH

Director Pharmacovigilance, QPPV

Zurab Koberidze has over 15 years of experience in clinical trials, clinical research, health care management, project and team management, monitoring, donor liaison and reporting and recently also medical safety and pharmacovigilance. Having gained his degrees from Tajik State Medical University and UC Berkeley, Dr Koberidze later joined IMC, where he supervised and coordinated several successful field projects in Russia and Africa. His medical safety and pharmacovigilance expertise covers among others oncology, cardiology, dermatology and device studies. Dr Koberidze is a highly experienced professional with a truly global perspective on medical practice.

The current and most recent positions include:

Director Pharmacovigilance, FGK Pharmacovigilance GmbH, Munich, Germany
(03/2013 – today)

Director Medical Safety, FGK Clinical Research GmbH, Munich, Germany
(02/2013 – today)

Medical Monitor and QPPV, FGK Clinical Research GmbH, Munich, Germany
(08/2011 – today)

Senior Program Officer, International Medical Corps UK, London, UK
(08/2008 – 07/2010)

Director of Country Mission, Medical Director, International Medical Corps
Russia, Moscow, Russia (06/2004 – 08/2008)

Health Care Management Intern, San Francisco General Hospital Medical Center, San Francisco, USA (05/2003 – 05/2004)

Head of Medical Information and Research Unit, State Center of Cardiovascular

Surgery, Dushanbe, Tajikistan (05/2001 – 05/2002)

Research Fellow, Tajik State Medical University, Dushanbe, Tajikistan (08/1996
– 04/2001)